MISS SARAH BURNHARD.

"Nervousness"

More than half the time nervousness is called by other names.

"Nervousness" means "starved nerves,"—the disorganization of the nerve system, on which every organ in the body depends for its healthy and continued action. All the health of the human body depends upon this nerve force.

The nerves are starving and burning themselves up—every day the worn-out feeling comes—the courage of life is fainter—the mind is worn by its worried activity,—in a word, one is "run down," nervous.

When the worn out feeling cannot longer be thrown off,—when the courage of life is utterly gone,—we call this condition of diseased nerves by the given name of "nervous prostration."

Nervous people—"run down" or tired out, who can profit by the experience of thousands during the past 17 years, call into use a prescription that really gives to the nerve system food that is fitted to its needs—the famous formula, discovered by Professor Edward E. Phelps, the great Physician of Dartmouth University; the celebrated nerve vitalizer and tonic, now known throughout the world as Paine's Celery Compound.

Every physician knows the famous formula and uses it constantly in his practice.

We print some of the letters sent us by persons who let themselves sink into nervous prostration, and who—having been restored to health—are willing to let the world know their gratitude to Paine's Celery Compound.

"I was a complete wreck from nervous prostration; I could not even sit up when I began using Paine's Celery Compound."

"At the end of two weeks I was able to go out, and in one month was able to go about my work with as much vim as I ever possessed, and this after an eighteen months' siege of prostration."

"I desire to put myself on record as a firm believer in the merits of Paine's Celery Compound."—Sarah Burnhard, 673 Sterling Place, Brooklyn, N. Y., Aug. 30, 1904.

"Nervousness," "nervous prostration," "nerve decline,"—that run-down, worn-out feeling,—nine times in ten are simply the result of prejudice, carelessness, or ignorance.

All that the starved nerves want is proper food.

Remember this,—Paine's Celery Compound is the prescription of one of the most famous physicians this country has ever known, and all reputable druggists sell and recommend it.
